Dear Mrs. Manley:

Your letter received. I have not heard from Jacksonville for a couple of days. At that time I offered him a game at Sanford for April 13th. He can not play at Jacksonville on that date, so I believe he will be glad to play.

How would Oscar Charleston's Club do at Daytona Beach in case that Mr. Greer has booked somewhere else? I will still protect your date with a club in case things do not go as you wish.

We leave here on March 31st. Gibson went to Mexico. He had signed a contract. We tried to serve a writ in him but he skipped out. We are suing him and are also having men look after his Income Tax returns.

Yours very truly,

S. H. Posey
